

Wabi -sabi style real shot series

REAL SCENERY PICTURE

细节图片

SPRING SCENERY

春暖花开

REAL SCENERY PICTURE

细节图片

The modern minimalist style is exquisite and simple, revealing a strong sense of design. In modern modeling, it has a very noble temperament. There are several different minimalist styles in the world. Milan, Italy, Germany and Northern Europe are the most important minimalist furniture production areas in the world. Among them, the most simple is the northern European minimalist style, the most industrialized is the German style, and in simplicity is the Milan minimalism with luxury and fashion.

The quiet white is the absolute protagonist in this style. There is no complication, no distractions, and no unnecessary struggle for fame and wealth. Everything in white is matched with simple ornaments with contrasting colors. There is no lack of flexibility in elegance, and there is no lack of nature in nobleness. Everything is so simple and everything is so profound.

Italian furniture, the focus of design is to emphasize elegant carving and comfortable design. It not only retains the color and texture of classical furniture, but also adapts to the space of modern life. These furniture meet the personalized needs of modern people, and the patterns and sizes can be modified according to the needs of customers. In Italian furniture, a chair is more than just a chair. In addition to being able to cope with the functions of life, Italian furniture has artistic beauty. When you use it, the perfect texture makes you satisfied; When not used, the artistic character immediately highlights, evades a strong sense of existence in the space, without losing elegance and romance. Italian modern furniture represents Italians' love for life and their understanding and pursuit of perfection.

The modern minimalist style is elegant and simple, exuding a strong sense of design. In modern mooding, it has a very noble temperament. There are several different minimalist styles in the world. Milan, Italy, Germany and Northern Europe are the most important minimalist furniture production areas in the world. Among them, the most simple is the northern European minimalist style, the most industrialized is the German style, and in simplicity is the Milan minimalism with luxury and fashion.

The quiet white is the absolute protagonist in this style. There is no complication, no distractions, and no unnecessary struggle for fame and wealth. Everything is white is matched with simple ornaments with contrasting colors. There is no lack of flexibility in elegance, and there is no lack of nature in nobleness. Everything is so simple and everything is so profound.

Italian furniture, the focus of design is to emphasize elegant carving and comfortable design. It not only retains the color and texture of classical furniture, but also adapts to the space of modern life. These furniture meet the personalized needs of modern people, and the patterns and sizes can be modified according to the needs of customers. In Italian furniture, a chair is more than just a chair, in addition to being able to cope with the functions of life, Italian furniture has artistic beauty. When you use it, the perfect texture makes you satisfied. When not used, the artistic character immediately highlights, results in a strong sense of existence in the space, without losing elegance and romance. Italian modern furniture represents Italians' love for life and their understanding and pursuit of perfection.

With the passage of time, Italian furniture has carried a glorious history, but no matter how the times develop and how science and technology progress, Italian craftsmen still use the handcraft inherited by their ancestors to make furniture. Handcraft has become an indispensable part of Italian social culture and lifestyle, and has also brought luxurious, elegant and comfortable Italian furniture to people who pursue high-grade life all over the world.

Italians believe that only this delicate and attentive handcraft can show the true meaning of Italian manufacturing. Nowadays, Italian handicrafts are famous for their superb craftsmanship and meticulous research. Especially the carving part, every carving from Italian craftsmen can be lifelike, and the clever design and exquisite technology are natural, with subtle details, showing elegance and dignity.

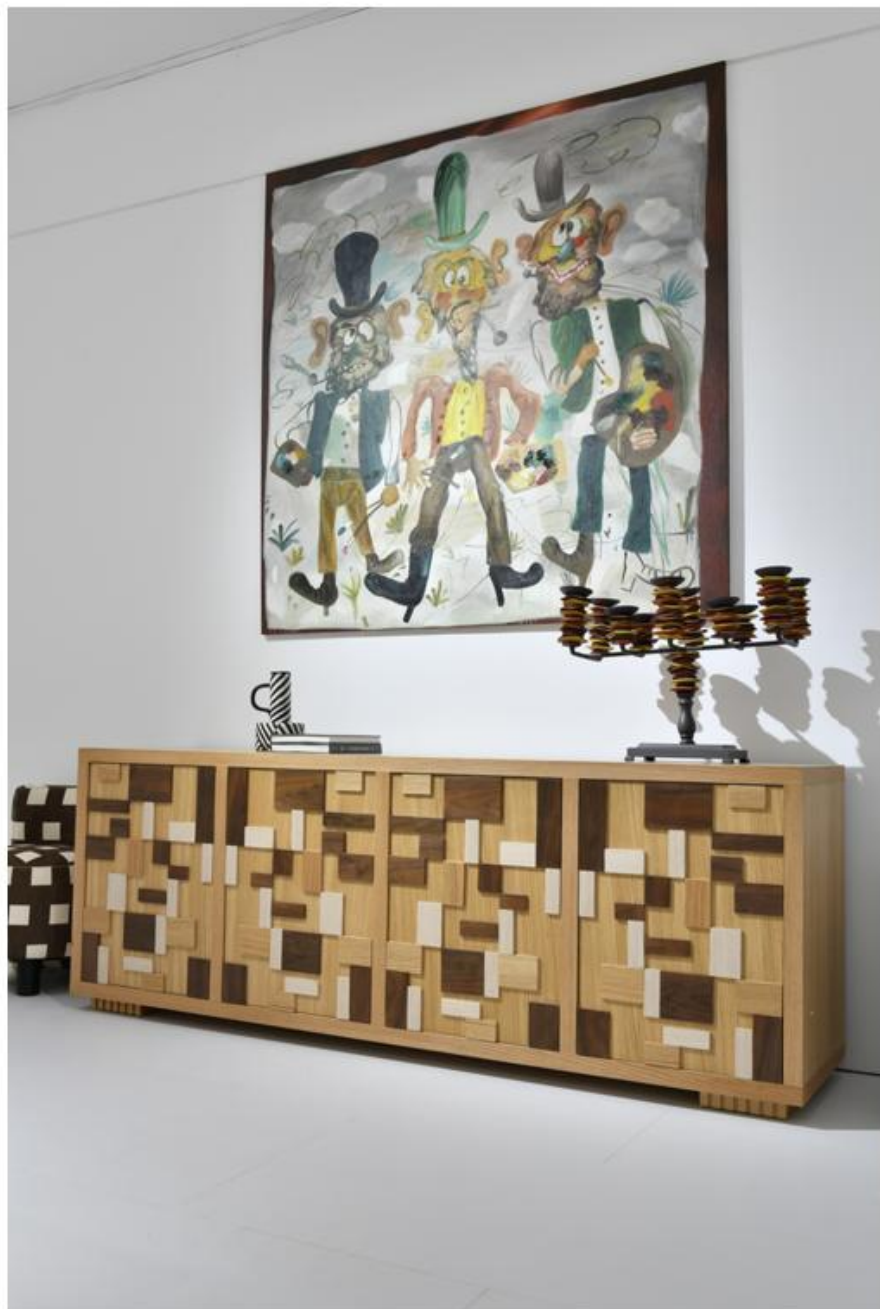

HANDMADE ART PUZZLE

手工艺术拼花

Minimalism has a mysterious natural beauty, real and free, without any complicated decoration. Unconsciously, Italian minimalism, a style that was originally out of favor in furniture style, suddenly became popular. Why is this? After my painstaking research, I finally found the charm of Italian minimalist furniture - Jane, not just, is the best word to describe Italian minimalism. There are several different styles of minimalism prevailing all over the world, such as simple Nordic minimalism, industrialized German minimalism, and Italian minimalism, which integrates nobility and fashion in simplicity. As the birthplace of the Renaissance, Italian design has become a world benchmark. The simple Italian design and lifestyle you see shows noble temperament and omnipresent artistic appeal.

Italian minimalism pursues simplicity to the extreme, reduces many unnecessary elements, retains the core part, and focuses on function rather than form. The texture of a clean and tidy appearance is very comfortable and comfortable, which is the same as minimalism.

Italian minimalist furniture slows down life. Italians advocate "Slow Living". In addition to enjoying "slow food" in life, they can make people realize what life is in home design. Many products, cultures and designs from Italy are increasingly integrated into our lifestyle and become a part of our daily life. In addition to being able to cope with the functions of life, Italian furniture has artistic beauty. It exudes a strong sense of existence in the space, without losing elegance and romance.

The modern minimalist style is exquisite and simple, revealing a strong sense of design. In modern modeling, it has a very noble temperament. There are several different minimalist styles in the world. Milan, Italy, Germany and Northern Europe are the most important minimalist furniture production areas in the world. Among them, the most simple is the northern European minimalist style, the most industrialized is the German style, and in simplicity is the Milan minimalism with luxury and fashion.

The quiet white is the absolute protagonist in this style. There is no complication, no distractions, and no unnecessary struggle for fame and wealth. Everything in white is matched with simple ornaments with contrasting colors. There is no lack of flexibility in elegance, and there is no lack of nature in nobleness. Everything is so simple and everything is so profound.

Italian furniture, the focus of design is to emphasize elegant carving and comfortable design. It not only retains the color and texture of classical furniture, but also adapts to the space of modern life. These furniture meet the personalized needs of modern people, and the patterns and sizes can be modified according to the needs of customers. In Italian furniture, a chair is more than just a chair; In addition to being able to cope with the functions of life, Italian furniture has artistic beauty. When you use it, the perfect texture makes you satisfied; When not used, the artistic character immediately highlights, exudes a strong sense of existence in the space, without losing elegance and romance. Italian modern furniture represents Italians' love for life and their understanding and pursuit of perfection.

ARTISTIC CARVING TECHNIQUES

艺术雕刻工艺

WHITE BAOGROUND MAP

白底图

The modern minimalist style is exquisite and simple, revealing a strong sense of design. In modern modeling, it has a very noble temperament. There are several different minimalist styles in the world. Milan, Italy, Germany and Northern Europe are the most important minimalist furniture production areas in the world. Among them, the most simple is the northern European minimalist style, the most industrialized is the German style, and in simplicity is the Milan minimalism with luxury and fashion.

The quiet white is the absolute protagonist in this style. There is no complication, no distractions, and no unnecessary struggle for fame and wealth. Everything in white is matched with simple ornaments with contrasting colors. There is no lack of flexibility in elegance, and there is no lack of nature in nobleness. Everything is so simple and everything is so profound.

Italian furniture, the focus of design is to emphasize elegant carving and comfortable design. It not only retains the color and texture of classical furniture, but also adapts to the space of modern life. These furniture meet the personalized needs of modern people, and the patterns and sizes can be modified according to the needs of customers. In Italian furniture, a chair is more than just a chair. In addition to being able to cope with the functions of life, Italian furniture has artistic beauty. When you use it, the perfect texture makes you satisfied. When not used, the artistic character immediately highlights, exudes a strong sense of existence in the space, without losing elegance and romance. Italian modern furniture represents Italians' love for life and their understanding and pursuit of perfection.

HANDMADE ART PUZZLE

手工艺术拼花

GOOD PRODUCTS ARE ROOTED IN
THE TRADITION.
TO EXPAND
THE TRADITION!

With the passage of time, Italian furniture has carried a glorious history, but no matter how the times develop and how science and technology progress, Italian craftsmen still use the handcraft inherited by their ancestors to make furniture. Handcraft has become an indispensable part of Italian social culture and lifestyle, and has also brought luxurious, elegant and comfortable Italian furniture to people who pursue high-grade life all over the world.

Italians believe that only this delicate and attentive handcraft can show the true meaning of Italian manufacturing. Nowadays, Italian handicrafts are famous for their superb craftsmanship and meticulous research. Especially the carving part, every carving from Italian craftsmen can be lifelike, and the clever design and exquisite technology are natural, with subtle details, showing elegance and dignity.

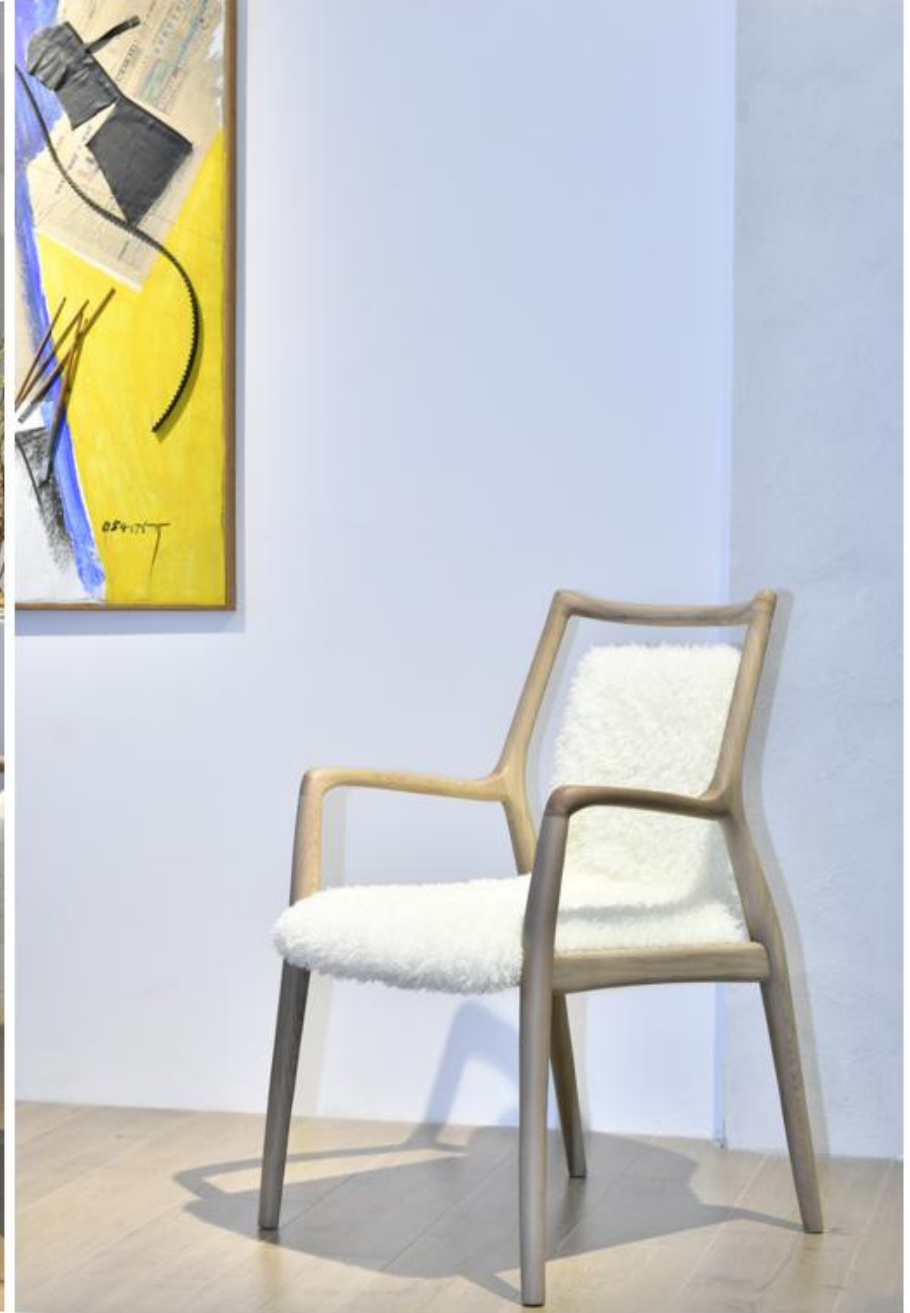

The modern minimalist style is exquisite and simple, revealing a strong sense of design. In modern modeling, it has a very noble temperament. There are several different minimalist styles in the world. Milan, Italy, Germany and Northern Europe are the most important minimalist furniture production areas in the world. Among them, the most simple is the northern European minimalist style, the most industrialized is the German style, and in simplicity is the Milan minimalism with luxury and fashion.

The quiet white is the absolute protagonist in this style. There is no complication, no distractions, and no unnecessary struggle for fame and wealth. Everything in white is matched with simple ornaments with contrasting colors. There is no lack of flexibility in elegance, and there is no lack of nature in nobleness. Everything is so simple and everything is so profound.

Italian furniture, the focus of design is to emphasize elegant carving and comfortable design, it not only retains the color and texture of classical furniture, but also adapts to the space of modern life. These furniture meet the personalized needs of modern people, and the patterns and sizes can be modified according to the needs of customers. In Italian furniture, a chair is more than just a chair, in addition to being able to cope with the functions of life, Italian furniture has artistic beauty. When you use it, the perfect texture makes you satisfied. When not used, the artistic character immediately highlights, evades a strong sense of existence in the space, without losing elegance and romance. Italian modern furniture represents Italians' love for life and their understanding and pursuit of perfection.

REAL SCENERY PICTURE

细节图片

Italian minimalist furniture, deducing the design aesthetics full of geometric concepts, is very artistic furniture into people's life, interpreting a more independent home atmosphere, and advocating a leisurely "slow life" way.

