IMPERFECTIO ARMCHAIR

Imperfectio Sofa is the expression of imperfect aesthetic, the appeal of that which is authentic art that is truer to life. Imperfectio Sofa praises artisanal work as the ultimate form of art that is quite intentionally imperfect. Through its unique existence and shapes Imperfectio Sofa determines its own history. The irregularities and flaws over the manual hammered brass exposes the beauty of imperfection. Some parts are roughly asymmetrical at the surface yet comfortable and smooth in a peculiar way to excite a desire for complementing your living room.

AMATERASU/ Corner Sofa

Amaterasu is the Goddess embodied as the Sun who rules the Universe and a principal deity of Japanese Shinto. The royal family of Japan is believed to directly descend from this vibrant, life-giving Goddess. She represents fertility and causes the plants to grow that give life to not only humans but to the gods as well. As the Guardian of the Japanese people, she is still represented by the emblem of the rising sun on the Japanese Flag.

AMASUNZU/ Armchair

Amasunzu is an elaborate hairstyle traditionally worn by Rwandan men and unmarried women, with the hair styled into crests, frequently described as crescent-shaped. The hairstyle indicated social status, and men who did not wear Amasunzu were looked on with suspicion until the 20th century.

The Amasunzu traditional hairstyle is hands down one of the most creative ever. Still being worn today, it was and still is a symbol of pride in Rwanda.

LAPIAZ BLACK CABINET

Lapiaz cabinet takes exceptional craftsmanship and design to a new realm. Finding beauty in the most unexpected places, this contemporary design piece is inspired by authentic karst formations. Its organic features are achieved through the manual fitting of polished brass, and a sharp finish in polished stainless steel that portrays a perfect mirror. Different-shaped doors and drawer open to a distinct poplar root wood veneer interior. The hammered gold details and the mirrored façade conveys both dynamics and elegance, a beautiful duality between power and refinement to bring a new contemporary verve into interior design.
